CHANGES AT THE INSURANCE COMMISSION

The Insurance Commission of Western Australia has a new Commissioner.

The Governor of Western Australia, on the recommendation of the Premier and Cabinet, has appointed Ms Jennifer Lawrence as a Commissioner of the Insurance Commission.

Ms Lawrence has over 40 years' experience in senior executive roles, most recently as CEO of Brightwater Care Group. Her expertise across the health and human services sector provides a valuable understanding of health and primary care and complements the existing diverse skill set among the Board of Commissioners.

Ms Lawrence also currently holds positions as Non-Executive Director at the WA Future Health Research and Innovation Fund, and the Harry Perkins Institute of Medical Research.

This appointment follows the resignation of Andrea Hall, who served as a Commissioner for eight years. The Insurance Commission expresses its gratitude for her long-standing support.

In addition, Commissioners Emma Scotney and Alan Rees have been reappointed as Commissioners for a further two-year term.

Board of Commissioners Chair Rob Bransby said,

“I warmly welcome the appointment of Ms Lawrence and the reappointment of Commissioners Ms Scotney and Mr Rees, to support the ongoing efforts of the Insurance Commission to improve service delivery. This renewal comes as the whole organisation looks forward to acknowledging the centenary of the Insurance Commission of Western Australia, in 2026”
