One of the benefits of your agency's travel cover is that when your staff travel overseas on official agency business they have access to the services of International SOS.

With facilities in more than 70 countries, their global network includes 27 assistance centres staffed by medical professionals and security experts, allowing International SOS to provide assistance to travellers anywhere in the world, 7 days a week, 24 hours a day.

If you require assistance while you are travelling overseas contact International SOS on +61 2 9025 2886.

You will need to advise the operator:

- The Insurance Commission of Western Australia's membership number 12ACPA000041.
- The name of the agency you work for.
- Your first and last name.
- Phone number/email where you can be reached.
